3. Definitions

- 3.1 "RMS" means the Secretary of the Department of Transport as head of the Transport Service.

Notwithstanding that, in some instances in this Award, references to "RMS" refer to the business of the Roads and Maritime Services rather than to the employer).

- 3.2 "Staff" shall mean the Traffic Signals classifications set out in Part B, Monetary Rates, employed as members of the Transport Service in the RMS Group.
- 3.3 "ETU" shall mean the Electrical Trades Union of Australia, New South Wales Branch.

- (b) It is essential that management and the ETU consult on all issues of mutual interest and concern, not only those issues that are considered likely to result in a dispute.
- (c) Failure to consult on all issues of mutual interest and concern to management and the ETU is contrary to the intention of these procedures.
  - (i) If a dispute arises in a particular work location which cannot be resolved between a staff member or their representative and the supervising staff, the dispute must be referred to RMS's Manager of the Industrial Relations Section or another nominated officer who will then arrange for the issue to be discussed with the ETU.
  - (ii) If the issue cannot be resolved at this level, the issue must be referred to senior management.
  - (iii) If the issue cannot be resolved at this level, the issue must be referred to the Industrial Relations Commission of New South Wales.

- (a) RMS and Traffic Signals Staff are committed to the Work Health and Safety Act 2011 (NSW), and other relevant statutory requirements at all times.

- (e) The unions and wages staff acknowledges that the creation of an industrial dispute over a WH&S matter that is not legitimate is a breach under section 268 of the Work Health and Safety Act 2011 (NSW).

9. Consultation

- 9.1 Pursuant to the provisions contained in this subclause, there shall be effective means of consultation on matters of interest and concern, both formal and informal, at all levels of the organisation, between the Employer, ETU and Employees.

- 9.3 Employer to Notify

  - (b) The discussion shall commence as early as practicable and before the Employer has made a final decision to adopt and implement any changes referred to in subclause 9.3. For the purposes of such discussion, the Employer undertakes to provide in writing to the Employees concerned and the ETU, appropriate relevant information about such changes including the nature of the proposed changes, what they are intended to achieve and the expected effects of the changes on Employees.

10.2 It follows that in fulfilling their obligations under the dispute resolution procedure prescribed by this Award the parties have obligations to take all reasonable steps to ensure that the operation of the provisions of this Award are not directly or indirectly discriminatory in the effects. It will be consistent with the fulfilment of these obligations for the parties to make application to vary any provisions of the Award, which by its terms or operation, has a direct or indirect discriminatory effect.

10.3 Under the Anti-Discrimination Act 1977, it is unlawful to victimise an employee because the employee has made or may make or has been involved in a complaint of unlawful discrimination or harassment.

(2) Section 56(d) of the Anti-Discrimination Act 1977 provides:

This Award is made on the understanding that the salaries and conditions existing for employees at the date on which this Award takes effect shall not be reduced merely as a consequence of the coming into operation of this Award.

If you have a work-related concern and you feel capable and safe to do so, you should discuss the matter with the other person or people involved.

The best way to do this is to:

- find a time and place where you can talk about the matter without being interrupted
- politely and professionally explain the issue and your concerns
- explain how the issue is affecting you or impacting on your work, and
- ask everyone involved if you can work together to find a solution.

Concern about application of policy or procedure

You can raise concerns about the application of a policy or procedure, including performance development outcomes, with the decision maker (who may also be your manager).

To do this:

- explain your concern to the decision maker
- identify what section of the policy or procedure you believe wasn't applied or was applied incorrectly, and
- ask the decision maker to explain how their decision meets the policy or procedure requirements.

Even when your concern is raised informally, the decision maker has an obligation to provide an explanation. If you're not satisfied with the outcome or the explanation you receive, you can consider lodging a grievance (see 0).

A grievance will not proceed if your work-related concern relates to reasonable action by your manager to direct and control how work is done or allocated or to give you feedback about your work performance. Examples of reasonable action include:

Lodge a grievance

If informal resolution isn't possible or wasn't successful, you can lodge a formal grievance verbally or in writing with your manager, or a more senior manager if your manager is the subject of the grievance.

When you provide information to a manager receiving or managing a grievance, they may contact Professional Standards if they believe misconduct may have occurred. Any identified misconduct is managed under the Conduct and Discipline Handling Procedure.

Include the following information when you lodge a grievance to help the process:

- a clear statement that you are lodging a formal grievance
- details of what the grievance is about, what happened and who else is involved
- your preferred outcome for a solution.

The manager addressing the grievance can talk to Professional Standards or their People Partner for help and advice.

See 0 for information on confidentiality.

Everyone involved in a grievance is encouraged to access the Employee Assistance Program at any time for professional and confidential counselling services. Managers can also contact the Managers Assistance Program for advice on strategies to manage difficult issues.

You can access these programs either online (at <https://benestar.com> using Organisation ID: TfNSW and Organisation Token: TFNSW01) or by phone on 1300 360 364.

Discuss the grievance

Any meetings to discuss a grievance must be held privately and, where possible, away from the immediate work area.

Managers and employees can have a support person (see 0) at meetings.

Meet the person lodging the grievance

Once you lodge a grievance, the manager will meet with you within 24 hours or as soon as practical. This meeting is used to discuss the details of the matter so that you and the manager have a clear understanding of the issues and the preferred outcome.

If after the discussion, the manager decides the grievance should be dealt with under this procedure, they'll confirm with you that they will meet and discuss necessary details of the grievance with:

- the 'respondent' (if any), that is the person who is the subject of the grievance, for example in an interpersonal disagreement, and
- any witnesses.

At any time during the process and after discussing the grievance with Professional Standards, the manager can decide:

- the issue should be dealt with under a different procedure and process (see 0), or
- the grievance is vexatious or trivial (see 0).

In both cases the manager completes a Manager Grievance Report and emails it to Professional Standards at professionalstandards@rms.nsw.gov.au as well as taking other necessary action. Professional Standards liaises with the responsible People Partner in the business area on receipt of the report.

Meet the respondent (if any)

If the grievance is about another employee, they are the respondent to the grievance.

The manager meets with the respondent as soon as practical to provide information on the details of the grievance, the issues involved and the name of the person who lodged the grievance, so the respondent can respond fully to the manager and provide any relevant information.

The manager confirms with the respondent that the manager will discuss details of the grievance as part of meetings with any witnesses.

Meet with witnesses (if any)

As soon as practical, the manager meets and discusses the grievance with any witnesses that may help to confirm information or provide more details about the grievance.

The manager only provides necessary information about the grievance to witnesses for them to provide responses.

Finalise the grievance process

Once the manager has gathered all the necessary information they set up a meeting with those people directly involved with the grievance.

While a joint meeting is preferred because the strongest solutions are generated collaboratively, the manager may decide to hold separate meetings.

Outcomes can include:

- a solution is agreed, which may include:
  - a commitment that the concern that caused the grievance will not be repeated
  - giving or receiving an apology
  - adjusting work arrangements or implementing other strategies to address systemic issues
  - coaching, mediation and/ or training for those people directly involved with a grievance
  - confirming or amending an original management decision, and/ or

- taking other suitable action
- the circumstances that led to the grievance have improved and no further action is needed, or
- some issues remain or the problem can't be solved but everyone agrees to continue to work in a professional manner and move past it.

If a solution can't be found, the manager can ask a more senior manager to help or access additional support from Professional Standards or their People Partner.

Otherwise the manager confirms the outcome with the people directly involved in the grievance and ends the grievance management process.

Regardless of the outcome, the manager completes a Manager Grievance Report and emails it to Professional Standards at professionalstandards@rms.nsw.gov.au. Professional Standards liaises with the responsible People Partner in the business area on receipt of the report.

Other information you should know

Appeals

The person who lodges the grievance or the respondent can email or send an appeal to Director People and Culture Business Partnering in TfNSW or Director People and Culture in Sydney Metro no later than 21 days after an outcome has been confirmed by the manager if they believe that all or part of the process did not comply with this procedure.

Confidentiality

Managers are to treat work-related concerns raised with them by employees confidentially.

Everyone involved in a grievance management process must maintain confidentiality and only discuss the matter with the manager, other employees involved in the management of the issue, support persons, Employee Assistance Program personnel, or immediate family members. Any breach of confidentiality may result in disciplinary action.

Documentation

The person managing the grievance process must take brief and factual diary or file notes of all agreed actions and timelines and must keep all relevant documentation securely for seven years.

In addition the manager must complete a Manager Grievance Report and forward it by email to Professional Standards at professionalstandards@rms.nsw.gov.au (see 0 and 0).

Victimisation

Victimisation is any unfavourable treatment of a person because they raised a work-related concern or lodged a grievance, or they were a respondent to or involved in a grievance.

Any employee who victimises or retaliates against any person involved in a grievance may be subject to disciplinary proceedings.

Vexatious and trivial grievances

An employee who lodges a grievance that they know is false, or is considered trivial, or who continues to raise complaints that have been investigated and finalised, may be subject to disciplinary processes up to and including termination.

Work-related concerns from labour hire personnel, consultants and Professional Services Contractors

Labour hire workers or professional service contractors must raise any work-related concern with their employer, who may contact Transport for NSW about the matter. Any reports will be taken seriously and managed in accordance with the commercial agreement with the service provider and the responsibilities of Transport for NSW.
