Applying for transfer of registration

You must apply for transfer of registration at a service centre within 14 days of purchasing/acquiring a vehicle.

(applications will not be accepted by mail)

You should have the current certificate of registration for the vehicle. Make sure it is signed on the back by the seller.

If you do not have the current certificate of registration, you will need to provide proof of entitlement to transfer the registration, for example, an original receipt for the vehicle which clearly shows:

- Your name
- The seller's name, address and signature
- The registration number of the vehicle
- The VIN or chassis number
- The date that you bought the vehicle
- How much you paid for it.

If you can not provide any proof of entitlement to transfer the registration your application may be refused.

For more information visit roads-waterways.transport.nsw.gov.au

Heavy Vehicle over 4.5 tonnes GVM:

If you are transferring the registration of a heavy vehicle over 4.5 tonnes GVM, you must also indicate the Nominated Configuration Code at question 11.

Proof of Identity (POI):

Your POI documents must be originals and must include your signature and your residential address.

When you attend a service centre, you need to show proof of identity (POI). You can use your current NSW driver photo licence or one which expired within the last two years. For a list of acceptable POI documents visit roads-waterways.transport.nsw.gov.au or call Service NSW on 13 22 13.

Corporations are required to provide one of the following when being established as a Transport for NSW customer for the first time, or to change its name:

- Certificate of Registration, with Australian Company Number (ACN)
- A current Extract of the Company, with ACN
- Certificate of Registration on Change of Name with ACN
- A printed extract from the Australian Securities Investment Commission (ASIC) website with ACN
- Certificate of Incorporation issued by the NSW Fair Trading or an Association Summary from NSW Fair Trading's online search facility.
- Certificate of Registration of a Foreign Company, with Australian Registered Body Number (ARBN) for companies incorporated overseas.

Government authorities or organisations incorporated under legislation must provide on letterhead the name of the Act under which they are incorporated when being established as a Transport for NSW customer for the first time, or to change its name.

Hearing or speech impaired?

Call on the National Relay Service: TTY users phone 133 677 then ask for 13 22 13. Speak and Listen users phone 1300 555 727 then ask for 13 22 13.

Courtesy name:

This field may be used to record an organisation name. This name will be recorded on the Certificate of Registration. The name recorded in this field is not the registered operator of the vehicle.

Representative Authority

If you send someone else to the service centre to apply to transfer the registration to your name, fill in the Representative Authority section of this form. If the vehicle is being registered in the name of a corporation, the Representative Authority must be filled in. For a company, the Director or an authorised delegate must complete and sign the Representative Authority. In the case of incorporated association, the public officer must sign. In all cases, the authorised representative must provide proof of their identity.

If you are not already recorded on the Transport for NSW computer system, you must attend the service centre in person and provide POI.

Transfer and Stamp Duty charges:

The transfer fee is at least $34. If you do not apply to transfer the registration within 14 days of purchasing/acquiring the vehicle, a late application fee of at least $121 also applies.

Costs shown are correct at the time of printing, but can be subject to change without notice.

Please note:

If the vehicle is registered with a concession additional costs also apply.

Stamp duty is collected by Transport for NSW on behalf of Revenue NSW when registration is issued to a different person or corporation. Stamp duty is based on the market value of the vehicle or the price you paid, whichever is greater. Stamp duty is calculated at $3 per $100, or part of the vehicle's value.

For passenger vehicles valued over $45,000 with seating for up to 9 occupants, including: a sedan, station wagon, coupe, convertible, four wheel drive vehicle with seats and windows, two wheel drive panel van with seats and windows, three wheel car, forward control passenger vehicle, small bus, motor home, or snow vehicle the rate of stamp duty is $1,350 plus $5 per $100, or part, of the vehicle's value over $45,000.

You can use this method to calculate the amount of stamp duty payable for your vehicle, or you can use the motor vehicle registration duty calculator at revenue.nsw.gov.au
