Transport for NSW

Western Sydney - Biodiversity Offsetting Program

Submission of an Expression of Interest (EOI) is the first step to take if you are considering establishing a Biodiversity Stewardship Agreement on your land. You will receive a call from Transport for NSW or a delegate to organise a time to discuss your application. Submitting an EOI does not carry any obligations and is free of charge.

Vegetation and threatened species

If you know the details of the species and vegetation communities on your property, please provide these details below. Additionally, if you can provide relevant documents such as biodiversity survey reports, photos of vegetation or a plan/sketch showing vegetation on the property, please attach these to your EOI submission.

Please note this is not mandatory.
