

Site compound at 166a Epping Road, North Ryde

The Australian and NSW Governments are taking action to improve Sydney’s road network by easing congestion, improving traffic flow, travel times and road safety.

We are adding a fourth northbound lane on Devlin Street between Victoria Road and Blaxland Road in Ryde to allow for more vehicles to pass through the intersection.

For this work, we are using 166a Epping Road, North Ryde as a site compound to store materials and equipment.

This site compound will be used until the project is completed in late 2022.

How the work will affect you

We will be accessing the site compound up to six days and five nights per week.

Our work at the compound site can be noisy and dusty. When we undertake night work on the project, we will need to use the site compound at night.

We will do everything we can to limit the disturbance to our neighbours when we use the site compound including:

- organising deliveries during the day
- turning off machines and vehicles when not in use
- completing noisier work before midnight
- directing lights away from residential properties
- using water to control dust.

Stay up to date

We are committed to keep the community informed by providing current information about our monthly construction activities and their impacts.
